*The More Montessori program is an extended day for Preprimary Half Day students. The children continue to work in the More Montessori classroom but in a family-style, play-based manner that focuses more on social and emotional development than on academic content. For children still in need of a rest time, a nap or downtime is offered. The All Day tuition rate applies for those who attend More Montessori three or more days per week on a regular schedule. Depending on space availability, families may have their children attend one or two days per week, on a regular schedule, at the rate of $32.00 per day attended.
